

University of Connecticut
Early College Experience

Second Annual Locally Grown History Forum
Sunday, October 18, 2009, 1:00 – 5:00
Hogan Lecture Hall, UConn Torrington

CONNECTICUT AND THE REVOLUTION

KEYNOTE ADDRESS 1:00-1:45

Professor Robert Gross,
University of Connecticut:

"Yankees in Rebellion: Reflections on the American Revolution in New England"

WORKSHOPS 2:00-2:45:

A. Teaching through History Day
Cathy Gorn, Executive Director, NHD and Ben Gammell, Coordinator, Connecticut History Day, and Chelsea Eckert, Torrington High School, History Day Student Participant

B. Revolutionary Archaeology in Connecticut
Nick Bellantoni, Connecticut State Archaeologist

WORKSHOPS 3:00-3:45:

A. Children in the Revolution
Christopher Collier, former Connecticut State Historian and author, My Brother Sam is Dead

B. Connecticut Native Americans and the Revolution
Dr. Jason Mancini, Senior Researcher,
Mashantucket Pequot Museum and Research Center

ROUNDTABLE 4:00-5:00:

Religion and the Republic: Approaching a Central Theme in Connecticut History.
Prof. Andrew Walsh, Trinity College, with the Bellamy-Ferriday House, Bethlehem, the Glebe House, Woodbury, and the Cornwall Historical Society, Cornwall

To register, email Jennifer.griffin@uconn.edu. For more information, go to www.locallygrownhistory.org